1. Journal writing is a brief but regular writing time — Initially, preschoolers may write for just ten minutes. Over time they will write longer. However long the writing period is, the important thing is that children write often. Aim for at least three times a week if you want your children to grow as writers. 2. Journal writing is open-ended. “My favorite food is...” or “I like to...” are writing prompts.

An essential "how-to" primer, this book examines the process of learning to write and shares evidence-based instructional strategies for the primary grades. With an emphasis on explicit instruction and scaffolding students' learning, the authors explain when and how to teach handwriting, spelling, foundational skills such as sentence formation and editing, and composition in specific genres. They present clear-cut techniques for assessment, differentiation, and supporting struggling writers. The Common Core State Standards (CCSS) for Writing are used as a framework for setting instructional goals. Reproducible assessment forms, checklists, and rubrics are provided; purchasers get access to a Web page where they can download and print the reproducible materials in a convenient 8 1/2" x 11" size.

It's my bible for teaching young children and It reads like a novel, said veteran and preservice teachers alike.

This writing and tracing book is designed for beginning writers. Writing a full sentence is hard, and this journal is here to help! Your child can practice their handwriting by tracing the writing prompt on each page, and then complete the sentence by using one of the suggested words. There are also blank pages without prompts or word suggestions in the second half of the book to allow your child to write on their own. What makes this book unique: - 50+ writing prompts appropriate for preschool to 1st grade - writing prompts that can be traced to practice handwriting - suggested words to help your child complete the sentence - large area for drawing to entice the little artists

Motivate your students to write with fun-filled reproducibles for every month! Each reproducible pairs a drawing prompt with quick writing prompts on favorite topics: autumn harvest, animals, 100th day, holidays, weather, classroom community, and more. As a pre-writing warm-up, drawing pictures sparks kids' interest, helps them generate ideas and details for writing, and makes their subjects lively and real. A great way to encourage reluctant writers! For use with Grades K-2.
