assignments electronically. Longman English Interactive , written by Michael Rost and Marjorie Fuchs, is a four-level, video-based, integrated-skills program that includes more than 100 hours of instruction per level. The program provides instruction and practice in grammar, speaking, listening, vocabulary, pronunciation, and reading. Students work with contemporary and engaging video, audio, animations, and extensive practice activities to develop essential skills. Longman English Interactive provides practice in speaking, listening, grammar, vocabulary, pronunciation, reading, and writing. Course material is based on an exciting video drama involving an aspiring journalist and a sports star accused of accepting a bribe. Features of Level 4: High Intermediate Role-plays with video characters engage learners and create realistic dialogue practice. A unique pronunciation feature uses animation to
